ORDER:

In the reference 1st read above, orders were issued for purchase of 6.00 Lakh MTs of Raw rice for additional requirement under Public Distribution as Statepool Rice and for purchase of 1.50 LMTs of Sannabiyyam (Steamed-37500 MTs and Raw-112500 MTs) through open E-tenders from the Rice millers of Telangana State only for Kharif Marketing Season 2019-20 subject to condition that the rate of procurement of State Pool and Sannabiyyam shall be fixed by constituting a committee by negotiations from the successful bidders (Rice Millers).

2. In the reference 2nd read above, the VC & Managing Director, TSCSCL, Hyderabad has informed that, tenders were floated vide Tender notice No. Mktg/M2/3887/SB/2019-20 dt. 04.12.2019 for purchase of 1.50 LMTs of sannabiyyam, (6) Rice Millers have submitted online bids on 16.12.2019 offering a total quantity of 57390 MTs only and the L-I rates obtained were also on higher side viz., Rs.35010/- per MT for sannabiyyam steamed rice and Rs.34020/- per MT for Raw rice compared to last year rates.

3. Further, the VC & MD has informed that, in view of insufficient quantities offered by the tenderers as against the annual requirement of 1.50 LMTs, the purchase committee has conducted negotiations with the L-I tenderer for increasing the quantity and to decrease the rates on 19.12.2019, during the negotiations the L-I tenderer has expressed their inability to reduce the rates or to increase the quantity further. Subsequently the State Rice Millers Association have submitted a representation expressing willingness to supply entire requirement of 1.50LMTs of Sannabiyyam in the form of Raw and steamed rice as desired by TSCSCL.

4. That, in order to ensure procurement of entire required quantity of Sannabiyyam for KMS 2019-20 for uninterrupted supply under MDM and Hostels schemes, the Chairman of TSCSCL and the VC & MD, TSCSCL have convened a meeting with the State Rice Millers Association on 24.12.2019.

5. The VC & MD addressed the Rice Millers that Supply of Sannabiyyam to schools and Hostels is the prestigious scheme launched by the Govt. of Telangana and the Millers being one of the main stake holders in the implementation of the scheme, should ensure uninterrupted supply of good quality Sannabiyyam stocks at reasonable rates as the Sannabiyyam is being supplied to feed the inmates of schools and Hostels. Further the Rice Millers Association was advised to evolve a mechanism to check if any quality complaint arises from any place by deputing a committee from their side to resolve the issues and if required to replace the stocks. Further the Chairman, TSCSCL requested the State Rice Millers Association to take this task of supply of sannabiyyam as a social responsibility and not as a commercial and profitable business as it is meant for the welfare of the economically backward students.

6. The VC & MD, TSCSCL has further informed that after making several efforts by the VC & MD and the Chairman, TSCSCL for reduction of rates, the Rice Millers have finally agreed to supply Sannabiyyam at the same rates of KMS 2018-19 i.e. Rs.3250/- per Qtl and Rs.3350/- per Qtl for Sannabiyyam Raw and steamed rice respectively in New Jute gunnies at their respective districts as per the prescribed specifications. Further that, during the meeting it was decided to supply Sannabiyyam stocks @ 50000 MTs per month and complete the entire quantity by March 2020. That, as fresh milled steamed rice will have good cooking quality over raw rice and can be readily utilised without storage, it has been decided to take Sannabiyyam stocks in the ratio of 50:50 i.e. 75000 MTs in the form of Raw rice and 75000 MTs as steamed rice, so as to avoid any cooking quality complaints from schools and Hostels.

7. The VC & MD has informed that, the Millers were also instructed to purchase Sannabiyyam paddy from the Farmers of Telangana state only at the rates not less than MSP of KMS 2019-20 and the proof of purchase of paddy from the Farmers have to be submitted as and when requested by the Corporation. The President, Telangana State Rice Millers Association assured to supply Sannabiyyam as per prescribed specifications at the above rates and also agreed to enter into an Agreement with Civil Supplies Corporation duly taking the responsibility on behalf of all the Rice Millers participating in supply of sannabiyyam to TSCSCL during KMS 2019-20. Subsequently Telangana State Rice Millers Association has submitted a representation expressing willingness to supply Sannabiyyam Raw and steamed rice for KMS 2019-20 at the existing rates of Rs.3250/- per Qtl and Rs.3350/- per Qtl respectively.

8. Finally, the VC & Managing Director, TSCSCL has requested to issue orders on the following for procurement of 1.50 LMTs of Sannabiyyam during KMS 2019-20 for meeting the requirement under MDM and Hostels schemes:
